and Blood of Jesus Christ (Corpus Christi)

First Reading: Gen 14: 18-20

Responsorial psalm: 110: You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old

Second Reading: 1Cor 11: 23-26

Gospel: Luke 9: 11-17

Dear Parishioners. Today gives us an opportunity to reflect on our celebration of the Eucharist in a way that we may not have time for on Maundy Thursday. This action is central to who we are as Christians. It defines us and builds up the Church as the Body of Christ in the world so that we can continue Jesus' mission on earth. Let us enter into this celebration giving praise and thanks to God for so great a gift.

Gospel reflection. There is perhaps no more heart-wrenching sight than the malnourished and starving. These sights demand a response from us. We know there is food in abundance; we know we are a nation that generally overeats. We know that often the world hunger problem is tied into politics. We know all these facts. And so when we celebrate this particular feast and hear these readings we are once more prodded to respond. Our own share in God's abundant gifts to us demands that those gifts spill out for those in need. The gospel moves from the practical, tangible level to the mystery of God's abundance and excess; from our being in control to surrendering ourselves so that God provides all we need.
