Dear Parishioners, the gospel of today presents us with the story of a man who is indebted to his master in the tones of thousands. His master forgives his debt and asks him to go free. On his way home he meets another man who owes him a little amount and he becomes aggressive towards him and even locks him up in prison and refuses to be merciful to him. When the master who had forgiven him heard of his wicked deeds towards his fellow, he gets him arrested and punished. In the same way, if we ask God for forgiveness, we should also be ready and happy to forgive those who hurt us.

PARISH UPDATES: Mass Booking: as Catholics 'The Holy Mass' is our perfect offering of Christ to the father. Every mass is worth as much as the sacrifice of our lord's suffering and death. We can book masses for ourselves, families, and friends on the occasions of their Birthdays, wedding Anniversaries, and private intentions and on the death anniversaries of those close to us who have died. We are therefore encouraged to book masses as often as we can. Envelopes are available at the back of the church.

Parish Catechists needed: The parish is need of volunteers who are happy to serve as the parish Catechists. Your job will be to assist Fr Francis to teach children Catechism.

Fire evacuation practice: Dear parishioners, in compliance to the health and safety policies within the Archdiocese, we shall have a fire evacuation practice after each mass on the weekend of 23rd /24th of September at St Cuthbert's. A later date will be communicated to us for the same practice at Our Lady's Currie.

Please bear with us while the works are carried out. There will be parking disruptions while this goes on, so we advise that you kindly come a bit earlier to allow time to park elsewhere.

The Ongoing Church work has been successful so far and we hope that in about two or three weeks time, we shall get back to normalcy regarding our parking spaces.

Parish council meeting: We shall have our Parish council meeting on Tuesday the 19th of September (this week). If you have any contribution, suggestion or concern within the parish, feel free to contact Fr Francis or any member of the parish council.

Blessings to you, your families and those who are dear to you in Jesus' name, Amen. ~ Fr Francis
