

ARCHDIOCESAN UPDATES

Day for Life Collection Sunday 21 June - The National Day for Life Collection is split 50/50 between the Archdiocese and the Bishops' Conference of Scotland. The Archdiocesan share will be used to support pro-life work covering issues at the beginning and end of life: the unborn and their mothers, the disabled, the elderly and the dying. This may include support for advocacy, education, pastoral care and formation in these areas, particularly in response to current developments and needs. In recent years, the Archdiocese has supported work including opposition to assisted suicide, protection of the unborn, post-abortion support, and the formation of young pro-lifers. More details at bit.ly/dayforlife26

1st Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13

Responsorial Psalm. In your great mercy, answer me O Lord

Second Reading: Romans 5: 12-15

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia... The Spirit of truth will bear witness about me, says the Lord, and you will also bear witness. Alleluia

Gospel: Matthew 10: 26-33

Gospel Reflection - Who can kill the soul as well as the body? We usually assume this refers to Satan, but only God could kill the soul as well as the body. Jesus makes it clear that this is not God's intention, because he tells us not to be afraid. God knows every hair on our heads: if not even a sparrow can fall to the ground without God knowing, how much more precious in God's eyes are his children?
